

Summer Reading Assignment

Read the following two novels:

Night - Ellie Weisel

Maus - Art Spiegelman

After you have read the novels, you will select one important event from each novel and complete the assignment below.

Style Swap Project

Night is an autobiographical novel told from the point of view of the main character in standard prose. (Written or spoken language in its ordinary form, without metrical structure.) Whereas Maus is a graphic novel (a novel in comic strip format) told from the point of view of the narrator's father. Your task will be to recreate the event you have chosen from in novel in the style of the opposite novel. This means you will take an event from Night, which is prose, and rewrite it in graphic novel format. You will also take an event from Maus, which is a graphic novel and rewrite it in prose.

Your submission will be graded based on the following criterion:

Maintenance of narrative. - Did you maintain the story in the new style?

Style - Does each submission show effort was put into the assignment?

Grammar - Did you check to ensure there are very few to no grammatical errors?

Attention to detail - Were you able to effectively capture the writing styles you were asked to use?

This assignment is due August 31st 2018.
