

Student Name:	Course:	Topic Focus:
5 - complete, clear, correct use of research and technology, clear and accurate labels, correct spelling and use of grammar	3 - good information, minor spelling errors, gaps in information or understanding of research	1 - information is present, but is inaccurate, contains spelling errors and incorrect grammar
Scientific Research and Presentation	Category Description	Points Earned
Scientific Research	Project is a research based.	5 4 3 2 1
Title	The title should be short and catchy and should summarize the research project.	5 4 3 2 1
Question	A question which is the proposed solution to the problem being considered. It is a one-sentence answer to the purpose question.	5 4 3 2 1
Purpose	The purpose is the topic being researched in question form.	5 4 3 2 1
Methodology	This is the "recipe" for the research and should include every step taken to carry it out. How and where the research was gathered.	5 4 3 2 1
Summary of Research	An overview of the information that was collected for the purpose of the project.	5 4 3 2 1
Graphics	A visual that represents a portion of the project.	5 4 3 2 1
Problems	A roadblock or obstacle that presented itself during the project or something that you foresee as a roadblock or obstacle in the future.	5 4 3 2 1
Next Step	How will you continue your project next semester. Now that you have gathered research, what do you plan on doing with it?	5 4 3 2 1
Resources	Materials other assets that were necessary for your research. Where you got your information from.	5 4 3 2 1
Conclusion	A conclusion is a statement that verifies, nullifies or proves inconclusive a given hypothesis and makes statements as to what further experimentation can be done to broaden the scope of the problem being considered.	5 4 3 2 1
Creativity	Used eye-catching, easy-to-read font, color and size on all text. Used appropriate contrasting color choices for display and section borders. Creatively filled empty spaces with appropriate graphics, photos or drawings.	5 4 3 2 1
Overall Presentation	The presentation is a complete record of the project topic, question, and research. The Presentation is orderly involving easy transitions between slides. All students contributed in the presentation through speaking parts and provided the audience with in-depth knowledge on their project.	20 19 18 17 16 15 14 13 12 11 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1
Participation	The amount of time in which a student contributed to the overall presentation through out the semester in E.I.C.	20 19 18 17 16 15 14 13 12 11 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1